

1. JESUS

—The Gospel

When Jesus began his public ministry, he went into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God: “The time has come,” he said. “The kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the gospel!” (Mark 1:17) Later, Jesus commissioned his disciples to proclaim the same message. (Matthew 10:1-15)

Similarly, we see the Apostle Paul declaring: “I do not account my life of any value, nor as precious to myself, if only I may finish my course...that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God. (Acts 20:24). He gave his life to the proclamation of the gospel of God’s grace.

Our English term gospel comes from the Greek word euangelion, which means “good news” or, “the best possible news!” In first century Greek culture, the euangelion might be the birth of a royal heir or a great battle victory. It was news that was so good it prompted contagious laughter, joy, and festivity. According to the New Testament, the gospel of God is the most important news anyone will ever hear. There are many important ideas associated with the gospel of God. We have listed a few:
